

Caring in Dermatology

The Australasian College of Dermatologists
8th Rural Dermatology Meeting
6-8 September 2024
Hobart, Tasmania

FRIDAY 6 SEPTEMBER

	Caring for Ourselves Chair: Dr Michelle McRae & Dr Leith Banney
13:30	Opening Address / Welcome to Country
13:45	Burnout and strategies for prevention A/Prof Jill Benson
14:30	The Burnout Project – management and recovery Dr Amy Imms
15:15	Afternoon Tea
15:40	Presentations and Discussion Panel Dr Leith Banney Dr Michelle McRae
	Life Priorities – Don't wait for an Existential Crisis! Dr Lachlan Warren
	Holding it all together – exam preparation in covid and crisis Dr Crystal Williams
	Dynamic Balancing – towards a better culture Dr Karyn Lun
	Panel Discussion Dr Leith Banney, Dr Michelle McRae, Dr Lachlan Warren, Dr Crystal Williams, and Dr Karyn Lun
17:00	Welcome reception, Onsite – Hobart Function and Conference Centre
19:00	Johnson & Johnson Welcome Dinner, TBC

*Program may be subject to change.

Caring in Dermatology

The Australasian College of Dermatologists
8th Rural Dermatology Meeting
6-8 September 2024
Hobart, Tasmania

SATURDAY 7 SEPTEMBER

	Caring for Our Rural Patients – Workforce Strategy and First Nations Dermatology Care Update Chair: Dr Lachlan Warren
8:30	FATES / College Workforce Agenda and Strategy Mrs Cathy Baynie / Dr Haley Bennett
8:50	Darwin FATES Project Retrospective Dr Dev Tilakaratne
9:00	Update in First Nations dermatology care Dr Crystal Williams, Member of College’s Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Affairs Committee
9:10	WA Workforce Survey Dr Genevieve Sadler
9:20	Rural patients within the Australasian Dermatology Registry A/Prof Peter Foley
9:30	Integrating nurse-led skin care education to improve outcomes for rural patients Dr Corinne Maiolo
9:40	Rural and Remote Services Committee State Updates
10:30	Morning Tea
	Caring for Our Rural Patients – Telehealth and Innovative Service Delivery Chair: Dr Leith Banney
11:00	Twenty years of Telederm National: Lessons learn; cases seen Dr Miranda Wallace
11:15	Delivering services to regional and rural areas: understanding our rural primary healthcare workforce Dr Celine Lee
11:30	Gender issues via tele dermatology Dr Michelle McRae
11:45	TBA
12:00	The best and the Worst of Tele Dermatology – Panel Discussion Dr Leith Banney, Prof H Peter Soyer, Dr Chris Ross, Dr Dev Tilakaratne, A/Prof Jim Muir, and more TBC
12:30	Lunch
18:00	Conference Party, Frogmore Creek Winery – 699 Richmond Rd, Cambridge TAS 7170

*Program may be subject to change.

Caring in Dermatology

The Australasian College of Dermatologists
8th Rural Dermatology Meeting
6-8 September 2024
Hobart, Tasmania

SUNDAY 8 SEPTEMBER

07:30	Johnson & Johnson Hosted Breakfast (onsite)
	Caring for the Environment - Sustainability Chair: Prof H Peter Soyer
08:30	Introduction Prof H Peter Soyer
08:35	Code Green – A collective call to action to deliver sustainable dermatology practise in Australia Renaë McBrien
09:20	Environmental Sustainability in Dermatology: Practical Strategies to assess and address Dr Natasha Abeysekera
09:35	College Sustainability Group
10:15	TBA
11:00	Morning Tea
	Let's Hear from our Future Dermatologists – Paper Presentations Chair: TBC
11:00	Pilot Study Evaluation of a Combination of Topical 5-Fluorouracil [5FU] and Calcipotriol in the Treatment of Cutaneous Actinic Keratosis [AK] Lesions Dr Hannah Gribbin
11:10	The Rural Happiness Index: Is Geographical Classification Correlated to Happiness? Dr Anne Marie Aubin
11:20	Work-related musculoskeletal disease and ergonomics amongst dermatologists Dr Celine Lee
11:30	Comparison of Keratinocyte Cancer Defect Sizes Excised by Mohs Micrographic Surgery: Metropolitan vs. Non-metropolitan Patients in New South Wales, Australia Dr Marjia Johns
11:40	Diagnostic challenge of cutaneous infection with Purpureocillium lilacinum in a kidney transplant patient Dr Danica Xie
11:50	A Retrospective Observational Analysis of Patient Demographics, Attendance and Case Mix in a Regional New South Wales Public Dermatology Outpatient Clinic Dr Xin Lin Wong
12:00	Q&A
12:15	Closing remarks and farewell
12:30	Conference Close

*Program may be subject to change.